

I don't believe that the Do Not Call system should be changed. I am a single mother of a three month old and it is quite difficult for me to get up and answer the telephone. I can't tell you how wonderful it has been to not receive these unwanted phone calls when I have a screaming baby in one hand, especially at dinner time.